OTS Leader: Diana Hall

UNC Learning Center: Free tutoring by appointment will be provided at Dey Hall 205 and 207. For details, see http://learningcenter.unc.edu/services/Math

Textbook: Introduction to the Practice of Statistics (6th edition) by Moore & McCabe & Craig (2009); StatsPortal is packaged with a new copy of the text (see page xxi), but not in a used copy (then you need to buy StatsPortal separately); In particular, “Excel Manual” is in StatsPortal.

Exams: Exam 1 (Tue. 5/25, in class), Exam 2 (Tue. 6/8, in class), Final (Mon. 6/14, 8:00 – 11:00 am)

Grading Policy: Exam 1 (20%), Exam 2 (20%), Homework (20%), Final (40%)

Exam Policy:

• in multiple-choice format
• closed-book, closed-notes, no formula sheets, no laptops, but calculators needed
• no make-up exams; for special needs and situations, a Dean’s excuse letter needed 3 days before the exam

Homework Policy:

• Assigned in each class, say A; Due in the class A+2; Returned in the class A+3; Necessary adjustments will be made right before each exam.
• No late hwk will be accepted; two lowest scores will be dropped.
• Any hwk not turned in at the regular class meeting must be deposited in the IA’s (not the instructor’s) mailbox (Hanes 310) before 9:45 am on the due date; do not slide hwk under the instructor’s office door; do not turn in hwk via email, disk, or other electronic form.
• To receive hwk credit, you must show all work neatly (no red pen or pencil), circle the final answers, print your name on every page, staple the entire assignment (including Excel exercises), only turn in Excel output related to the requested template. Note: hwk violating these rules will receive a grade zero for the entire assignment.

• Follow the Honor Code: verbatim copying of hwk is forbidden. But you are encouraged to ask the instructor, the IA/OTS leader, and the tutors at the UNC Learning Center for help.
